1. The Danish M/V MORELIA, operated by the East Asiatic Company of Copenhagen presently operating between Copenhagen and Vancouver, B. C., arrived in San Francisco, California 20 July 1953. The MORELIA reportedly visited Taku Bar and Tsingtao, China in 1953. [redacted] the ship visited the Chinese ports during February 1953 where the vessel's Captain was involved in several embarrassing incidents with Chinese Communist officials. As a direct result of these incidents the ship's Captain, upon his return to Denmark, notified company officials there that he would refuse to sail any vessel into Communist Chinese ports. The "MORELIA" subsequently was removed from the Orient run and is scheduled to travel between Europe and the West Coast of North America.
